Spain - Black Spot of Europe

SAM WILD.—National President of the International Brigade. Promoted to the rank of Major for his outstanding service in Spain.

FASCIST FRANCO is receiving from this country precious coal, wanted so badly by British working-class house-wives.

Textile machinery, so urgently required in the cotton mills of Lancashire, to supply the sheets, the kiddies clothes, of the people here, is being loaded by British dockers for despatch to Fascist Franco.

Why is this? Why does democratic Britain bolster up a man who, at this very moment, is shooting brave men whose only crime is that they have fought Fascism from the very beginning.

As this article is being written, news has been received that the brave Cristine Garcia, former Lieutenant Colonel in the French resistance movement has been foully shot, after a mockery of a trial and in spite of protests from the French and British Governments.

General Munoz Grande, Franco's Police Chief, who signed the warrant is on the Soviet Union's list of war criminals for his part in commanding the Blue Division which fought against the Russians with the Hitler army.

When Spain was invaded in 1936 by the forces of Hitler and Mussolini, 2,000 British men and women went to the assistance of Spanish Democracy to join the International Brigade.

Included amongst these were nearly 300 from Lancashire, 68 of them paid the supreme sacrifice in this fight for liberty. George Brown—Manchester, George Green—Stockport, Joe Felkington—Bury, Ken Bradbury—Oldham, Johnnie Owens—Liverpool, Maurice Stott—Rochdale, Tommie Moore—Salford, Ralph Cantor—Cheetham, are but a few of those that died that we might live.

The truth is that Fascism is seeking to raise its ugly head again and its tattered remnants are seeking shelter under Franco's cloak.

This arch-criminal should be standing, at this moment, in the dock with his fellows in bestiality, Hess and Goering, and the fact that he is still free, and torturing Spain, largely through the protection of the British Government, is a stain upon our honour; it must be ended at once.

The glorious page of history, written by our comrades in Spain, in the grim struggles of 1933 to 1939, against Franco, Mussolini and Hitler, along with the political fight here in Britain to end the policy of non-intervention which was pursued by the Chamberlain Government, will live forever in the history of the working-class.

Spain must cease to be a breeding ground for Fascism, and the base from which they can build up their forces again for the purpose of challenging the peace of the world. The hatred of Fascism, which sent great internationalists like George Brown, Hans Kahle and many others to lead the struggle in Spain, is needed today more than ever.

The Government must end all economic and political relations with Franco at once.

Every Spanish Consulate in Britain must be closed.

No more ships must leave this country carrying the means of life to Franco.

The Labour Movement, from which the present Government draws its strength, must demand this action at once.

GEORGE BROWN.—For years a figure in the Trades Council and leader of the Manchester Communists. Killed at Brunette, 1937.
